UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE Agricultural Marketing Administration Washington, D. C.

July 6, 1942

ADMINISTRATOR'S MEMORANDUM NO. 14

Salmon Releases

Letters dated May 28, 1942 and May 29, 1942, from J. S. Knowlson, Director of Industry Operations, War Production Board, allocated to the Agricultural Marketing Administration the entire pack of pilchard, by whatever name known, including sardines, sea herring and mackerel, and of salmon, set aside by canners pursuant to Order M-86-b.

The following named employees are designated a committee to determine if any part of the mack of canners is not required in view of Lend-Lease requirements and the requirements of other agencies when specific directions as to amounts for such agencies shall have been furnished by the War Production Board:

From the Livestock Branch - Preston Richards and D. M. Pettus, From the Purchase Branch - L. T. Davis and M. L. Prenner.

The members of such committee may operate jointly and severally, provided, however, that each decision must be approved by at least one member from each Branch. Appropriate notifications to the canners concerned shall be propared by the Purchase Branch and routed for clearance through Mr. Holt for the signature of the Administrator or Acting Administrator.
